MEMORANDUM FOR SEE DISTRIBUTION

SUBJECT: Policy Memo — Career Service Recognition for Civilian Employees

1. References:

a. Admin-Info Message, "Career Service Recognition for Civilian Employees," 17 March 2004.

b. Army Regulation 672-20, "Incentive Awards," 29 January 1999.

2. In accordance with above documentation, the Commander, US Army Medical Department Center and School (AMEDDC&S), highly supports recognizing the civilian population by issuing length of service pins, to include retirement pins, and Certificates of Service and/or Retirement. Presentation of pins and certificates should be made soon after the employee attains eligibility and during events of special meaning to the Army activity.

3. Certificates of Service/Retirement may be ordered from the base Publications Office, and pins of service/retirement may be ordered from the GSA Supply Catalog. Please allow at least one week for receipt of certificates and two weeks for receipt of pins. In dating the Certificate of Service include the date when the years of service were completed. The Certificate of Retirement will be dated with the actual date of retirement.

4. Certificates of Service/Retirement will be signed by the following individuals:

30+ Years of Service - Commanding General

20-25 Years of Service - Chief of Staff

10-15 Years of Service - Dean, AHS

ACFI

Brigade Commander

Director, APPD

NCO Academy Commandant

Executive Agency and Special Staff Chiefs
